Year 2 Trust Dance Competition

On Wednesday afternoon 15 children from Year 2 entered a dance competition. Miss Brown (our very own dance teacher) choreographed a marvellous dance routine to songs from the West End show Matilda. All children in Year 2 worked hard to learn the dance and 15 lucky children were chosen to represent The Links Primary at the competition. All children were fantastic and feedback from the judges was incredible. Not only did the judges comment on the children's amazing dance skills but also on their performance skills. They said of all the schools in the competition The Links had the best smiling faces and looked as though they were having lots of fun while they danced. They even liked our 'naughty' end poses!

Unfortunately, we did not win the competition but we were the real stars of the day. All children had beautiful manners and behaved exceptionally. Miss Brown and Miss Mcloughlin were extremely proud of all children.

A big thank you to Miss Brown for all her hard work.
